

Sing Out.

© Robert Morgan SOCAN

Sing out, sing out.
Don't let them get you down.
Sing out, sing out.
Let them know that you're still around.

It's too late for singing your song,
When all of your chances are gone.

Make sure you do while you can.

Sing out, sing out.
Give them all a piece of your mind.
Sing out, sing out.
Make them give you some of their time.

Don't tell me that all is in vain,
Don't tell me there's someone to blame.

(Guitar solo)

It's too late for singing your song,
When all of your chances are gone.

Make sure you do while you can.

Sing out, sing out.
Now's the time that you've got to choose.
Sing out, sing out.
So tell me what have you got to lose?
Now's the time that you've got to choose.
So tell me what have you got to lose?
