When my love goes walking by the water,
You know she come and say to me - yes she does!
You're gonna love me and my daughter.
Until that day comes eternity.

You know I love her and I tell her so.
If she should want me to then by God I would go.
Never tells me nothin' never tells me no lies.
If she should leave me then I know I would die.

When my love go walking by the water,
You know she come and say to me - yes she does!
You're gonna love me and my daughter.
Until that day comes eternity.
